Re: J. Choo Limited vs. ShopSueyBoutique.com, Inc. et al.
07 CIV 11167 (PAC)

Dear Judge Crotty:

We are outside counsel to Plaintiff J. Choo Limited in the above referenced matter. We are writing to you, with the consent of Defendants, to request a further adjournment of the initial pre-trial conference which was rescheduled from January 23, 2008 to February 7, 2008 at 2:15 pm.

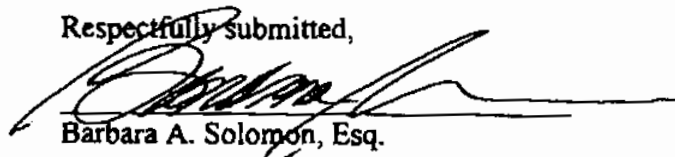

The parties have reached a settlement of this case. Counsel for the parties are working on finalizing a Proposed Final Judgment and Order on Consent for Permanent Injunction. We expect to be able to present fully executed copies of the Proposed Judgment to the Court for the Court's review and approval by the end of February. This slight delay is due to the fact that Plaintiff is located in London and the individual who is charged with executing judgments on behalf of the company is traveling and will not be available to execute the agreement until the middle of February.

The initial conference in this case had originally been scheduled for January 23, 2008. The parties have made one prior request for an adjournment which was granted by the Court on January 28, 2008. In light of the settlement reached, there should be no need for an alternative conference date. However, counsel for the parties are available for an initial conference on March 6, March 7 or March 10 in the event that the parties have not, prior to that date, submitted the proposed consent judgment for the Court's consideration. The request for adjournment does not affect any scheduled dates as a scheduling order has not yet been issued.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara A. Solomon, Esq.
